

Greenwood Fund Continues To Grow Reaches $1500 Mark

Newmarket—According to hospital authorities, Allan Greenwood can be expected back in Newmarket shortly, a tentative date being the first part of September. In the meantime, Allan seems to be making the most of his enforced stay. In a letter to the editor, he writes that he is taking occupational therapy and is busily engaged in making a leather belt.

He reads The Era and Express every week, he says, and "I certainly appreciate what the people are doing for me back in the town where old friends meet". Allan lost his left foot last month in a mowing accident.

He writes that Arthur Bales, his room-mate at Newmarket, is at the Toronto General hospital and he plans to visit him this week. Allan is travelling about in his wheel chair and learning to use his crutches.

In the meantime, Allan's friends in Newmarket continue to contribute towards a fund being set up to ensure his education despite his handicap. Mayor Joseph Vale, Clerk Wesley Brooks and editor John Meyer are temporary trustees of the fund and they plan to create a permanent trust within a few weeks. It is tentatively planned to have this trust administered with the advice of a representative of the Children's Aid Society. Full details, when completed, will appear in The Era and Express.

Contributions to the fund can be made at the Bank of Montreal, the Bank of Toronto, the Dominion Bank, where separate accounts have been established through the co-operation of the banks, or at either the town office of The Era and Express office. All contributions are being acknowledged in The Era and Express, as many each week as space permits.

Police Nab Suspect Sleeping In U.S. Car

Aurora—For some weeks past, tourist home operators in Aurora have been plagued with petty thieving and one large loss, by unknown persons who broke into the cars of American tourists who were overnight guests on their premises. Last Thursday morning, a south Yonge St. resident saw a man asleep in a tourist's car at an early hour and called Chief Constable Dunham. Chief Dunham took the man into custody. He had in his possession a stolen camera. He has been in custody now for a week.

Evidence showed another person had also been in the car although this was at first denied by the suspect, a Toronto man. According to the police, a heavy rainstorm started while the car was being entered and the man apprehended had remained in the car for shelter, finally going to sleep on the job. He later admitted that a companion who had been in the car had departed with fishing tackle stolen elsewhere but he denied knowledge of his identity.

Police believe American cars have been the targets for an organized group who choose to steal from their cars, in the belief that if apprehended later, the American tourists would have returned to the U.S.A. and would not return to identify their property or give evidence at the trial.

Band Concert Sunday, Plan Entry At C.N.E.

Newmarket—The Newmarket Citizens' Band will hold a concert in Lions club park Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Proceeds from a silver collection at the concert will help to finance a trip to the Canadian National Exhibition where the band will enter a contest on Music Day.

On Music Day at the C.N.E. September 2, the Canadian Bandmasters' Association and the C.N.E. committee are sponsoring a band contest. The Citizens' Band will compete with bands from other communities and Newmarket citizens can show that they are backing their band by attending the concert on Sunday night. There will be a good musical program with bandmaster William Greig conducting.

Mile Of Pennies Begun For Legion Clubroom

Aurora—The window of Central Cleaners is attracting considerable interest this week with its fine display of the proposed new Legion hall as well as photos of the Legion field day. The display inaugurates the mile of pennies drive started for the building fund. A box is placed outside for pennies, silver or bills, and the progress of the campaign will be indicated on the thermometer which was built, as was the model hall, by George Duffield. It takes $844.80 in pennies to complete a measured mile.

Ont. Historical Society To Have Display At C.N.E.

A new exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition is that of the Ontario Historical Society, on the second floor of the Coliseum building. This is the 60th year of the society's existence, and all its publications, now amounting to 49 volumes, will be on display.

There can also be seen copies of several interesting historical documents, the originals of most of which are in the possession of the provincial department of records and archives. These include General Isaac Brock's terms for the surrender of Fort Detroit, 1812; a letter of 1792 written by William Dickson regarding the sale of a negro wench; an original land grant, with seal attached; and the proclamation issued by the lieutenant-governor, Sir Francis Bond Head, offering rewards for the apprehension of the leading rebels in 1837.

The booth is being staffed by society members who will welcome visitors to the display.

Thermometer Registers 109.5 Visit 'Hottest Spot' In Town

By J. E. STRUTHERS

Newmarket—The heat wave sizzled into Newmarket in full force yesterday and by afternoon, merchants had fled the Main St. on their half holidays and only at odd intervals did a perspiration soaked individual muster ambition to struggle up the Main St. hill.

The thermometer at the back door of the Post Office registered 109.5 degrees at 3.10 p.m.

There is no half holiday on Wednesday at The Era and Express and in the terrific heat we felt worse when we looked out on a vacant Main St. and imagined others puddling about in Lake Simcoe. Our staff has developed a persecution complex. The only office comments came from the ad department when it muttered about slaving all afternoon over a hot ad.

Feeling that there must be a "hottest place" in town, we went down to the Capital Cleaners' plant to get our pants pressed "while-u-wait" and record the temperature. They took the pants and pressed them and the service was good but it was so hot in that pressing room that we waited outside behind some bushes at the back, clad in unmentionables.

There was a thermometer in the dry cleaning plant but it had apparently collapsed in the heat. Estimates by employees ranged between 103 degrees and 120 degrees. That was a morale booster for our boys in the composing room.

Another hot spot in town was on the brown leather front seat of the editor's car. An agonized scream was reported when he drove away from the front door of the office around 2.30 p.m.

We also have a blister on our right hand. Calling on Chief Constable Burbridge at the police station, we reached out for the metal door handle which was facing the sun at the rear of the town hall and received third degree burns.

Down at the depot, feelings of great sympathy welled up at the sight of an unfortunate man building a coal fire in a mobile heater to warm up tar in a railway tank car in the blazing sun. We did not ask him if he felt cozy in his heavy overalls and mitts.

Wind Up Summer With Lake Picnic

Seventy-five children of elementary school age wound up the annual Lions club summer playground with a picnic and swim at Lake Simcoe on Friday. Selected from the average attendance of over 130, the group was taken north in the cars of Lions club members and spent the afternoon at Lake Simcoe where they swam and ate the sandwiches, cake, fruit prepared by the wives of Lion members. This is the third year the club has provided a supervised playground in the Lions club park for six weeks during the summer months. Directed this year by Francis Hollingsworth, assisted by Audrey Rowland, the program included group games of all sorts as well as swings and other playground facilities.

Coleen Cain and Bob Broadbent were presented with prizes for the highest number of points based on participation and attendance during the six weeks.

Marsh Growers Seek Higher Return

Bradford—The Holland Marsh vegetable growers have formed an association through which they hope to get a larger return for marsh land products. While wholesale prices in the Toronto area dropped as low as 75 cents a crate, giving the grower a return of two cents a head less fixed deductions, retail prices for head lettuce have risen over 10 cents a head.

President of the new organization is Chas. Davis and George Carson is secretary. The organization seeks orderly marketing, reduction of the spread in price between producer and consumer, comparable inspection of vegetables throughout the province and the establishment of a floor price.

Meanwhile, head lettuce from the Holland Marsh, which was a bumper crop this year, is being well received on large American markets. While heavy crops have forced prices down, ice-packed cars have been moving across the border taking head lettuce to markets in competition with the California product, a reversal of the usual procedure.

Ship to New York
From Bradford, shipments have been going to New York and Philadelphia daily on ice, and dry pack lettuce has been going to Buffalo and Detroit in large quantities. According to George Horlings of the Holland River Gardens, they hope to get a first class pack of lettuce on big markets in major cities within a radius of 500 miles south every day of the shipping season. In this way it is hoped to establish the product and show that the Holland Marsh growers are not just "in and outers." For the first time the American tariff reduction has allowed lettuce to move across the border at a reduced duty. Another factor in the success of American shipments is the organization with a plant and in experience in shipping.

Producers' Panic
Similar price differences between the producer and the consumer to the Holland Marsh potato exist in the marketing of tomatoes grown in the Leamington district. One of the causes of such conditions is a producers' panic when prices start to go down at the height of the harvest. The producer hears of the drop and tries to dump his crop on the market to beat the price drop, causing an overcrowded market.

Organization by the farmers can prevent this, as shown by potato growers around Elgin and Sussex counties, says W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative at Newmarket. The potato growers organized and as soon as there was a danger of overcrowding the market, every grower was notified that there would be a three-day "no dig" period. In a short time the market would right itself.

It is evident everywhere farmers organize that they can exercise more control over markets and benefit themselves than by fighting alone.

Lions Midgets Win O.B.A. Opener 10-8

The Lions made their first showing in the O.B.A. playdowns a winning one. Saturday afternoon at Pantry Park they nicked Weston 10-8. That's win number one in the best two-of-three series. The Lions will be striving for a second next Saturday at Weston's Gibson Park. A victory will send them into the second round.

Saturday the crowd watched Jerry Simmons do his stuff for six innings. Jerry did it right well, holding Weston to three hits and five runs. When Simmons weakened in the seventh, loading up the bases, coach Bill Haskell got in there fast with "Ortle" Thoms in a relief role. Thoms stepped into a difficult spot. He walked in a pair of

Cars Collide On Davis Dr. In Sunday Traffic

Newmarket—Two cars met in a head-on collision at the corner of Davis Dr. and Prospect Ave. around nine o'clock Sunday night causing an estimated $75 damage to both cars.

A car driven by Howard Barnes, 527 Sherbourne St., Toronto, was travelling west on Davis Dr. and attempted a left hand turn onto Prospect Ave. A car driven by Bruce Dale, Mount Albert, travelling east on Davis Dr., struck the Barnes car with resulting damage to the front of both cars. The Dale car received an estimated $30 damage and $45 damage to the Barnes car.

Traffic at the time of the accident was exceptionally heavy, according to police. Constables Curtis and Leeder investigated; no charges were laid.

for five runs to earn a commanding 8-3 lead. Jerry Simmons' four-base blow that travelled well beyond the Weston outfielders, scoring Don Duncan and "Red" Wilkins, was the big blow. Spike Cain's and Jerry Hugo's singles along with a walk to catcher Bill Hillaby registered two more in the fifth. That was a margin the invaders couldn't eliminate. The Lions chalked up a further run in the fifth and one in the seventh.

Don Duncan, Spike Cain and "Ortle" Thoms took special interest in their plate work. They slashed out three hits apiece.

Work Speeded On 50 New Homes

Newmarket—Houses will be seen in about six weeks at the construction site south of Eagle St. for 50 new low rental houses, according to the building foreman this morning.

Excavation for cellars was started yesterday and footings are to be made right away. This afternoon, framing is to be in progress.

With 20 men employed on the project and several pieces of massive machinery, the entire area is undergoing great physical changes by the hour. Construction shacks have mushroomed up and the whole scene points to speed and mass production.

"We are going to try and beat the weather," was the foreman's comment.

With a steam shovel and graders working on excavation, it won't be long before the structures can be seen. They will be built by mass production methods from prefabricated forms.

Councillors Polled On Use Of Debentures To Finance Roads

Newmarket—The need to make improvements on roads, street lighting, sidewalks and fire alarm system has been brought up briefly from time to time at town council meetings recently. At a special meeting to be held in the near future, councillors will voice approvals or disapprovals on whether the council will take out debentures to the job.

At the request of Reeve Arthur D. Evans, the Warren Bituminous Paving Co. made a survey of Newmarket streets and returned a report which advised resurfacing, widening and curbing and putting in new concrete bases on various streets. Reeve Evans has urged at council meetings that debentures be issued to finance the improvements.

Taking a poll from council members with the question "Are you in favor of taking out debentures to improve Newmarket's streets?" the following are comments by members:

Frank Bowser, "I am definitely in favor of the roads being repaired. I think curbs and gutters should be put in where possible and I believe, after a careful survey or study on what roads I have seen repaired in other towns, a one and a half inch macadam top dressing is needed. Much thought must be given on whether a debenture be taken out over the whole town or whether a system of frontage tax be used."

Rudy Renzies, "I am definitely in favor of taking out debentures to improve roads, sidewalks, street lighting, new fire alarm system and of course, the Fairway Lake project. As an example, Prospect Ave. should not have ditches on both sides. It would be 3 to 4 feet wider if it had gutters on both sides and it is one of our main arteries."

Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette, "I have said in council that I am in favor of taking out an approximate $45,000 debenture for street and sidewalk repairs. I have not been at the last two meetings and I don't know much about the paying report."

R. C. Morrison, "For the last 20 years, we have been paying for former paving on the streets. Why not take out debentures for improvements and let the next generation contribute? I am in favor of taking out debentures for improvements."

Tom Birrell, "We need work done on the roads and when the time comes, we will have to debenture. However, what will be done and where it will be started is a matter for discussion at the next meeting."

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

Do you feel that being prompt requires too much effort? If so, you are overlooking the fact that promptness pays worthwhile dividends in terms of success and popularity.

All the people with whom you may have relationships in your job — co-workers, customers, employer — will think you are more efficient and dependable if you keep appointments on time. And their good opinion of you can help you get ahead.

Even in off-work hours, promptness can build happier relationships with family and friends. For when you are on time it shows that you are considerate of other people and that you value their time.

How can you become prompt? It's easy! All you have to do is to say to yourself: From now on I'm going to be on time all the time with everybody!

Why not resolve today that you will see how much good you can build in this simple way?

Life Insurance Companies are justly proud of their record in making prompt payments to beneficiaries and policyholders. It may surprise you to know that such payments in Canada approximate a half million dollars every day.

So many people have told me how much they enjoyed my ramble 'round the pond in last week's paper, describing what our beloved Fairley Lake looks like without the water in it, and all agree with me that it could be a wonderful asset to the town. They all echo my hopes that we can make it a beauty spot.

Many of them recall the "Dutchman's Bay" adjoining Mrs. Bacque's lovely home and remember the wonderful garden parties held on Mrs. Bacque's lawn, how we all loved to make the little trip over the bridge to the summer-house on the island. Well, when once again the water fills up the pond, and that I hope will mean re-filling the little basin we call Dutchman's Bay, that beauty-spot will be restored. The beautiful willows and other trees that surround it shut it quite away from the road. It is such a secluded little spot that you are scarcely aware of the heavy traffic passing continuously each way.

Last week I made a mistake and referred to Mrs. Bacque's home as "The Elms", instead of which I now recall, was "Elmwood" when Mr. Tom Brunton lived there, and I expect Mrs. Bacque still calls it the same. It is Mrs. Choppin's lovely old home on the opposite side of Eagle St. that is called "The Elms", and there are wonderful specimens of Elm trees on both properties. You can just imagine how the owners must have felt when the Metropolitan street car line was cut through both places.

All the same, when we look back to those good old days we wish the old Metropolitan street cars were still running. Just fancy before the days when motor cars were so plentiful, you could go down to Toronto as early as six o'clock, stay all day if you wanted to, and get back on the midnight car. The Metropolitan people owned Bond Lake and many were the picnics they had there. They had a wading pool for the children. It was a graded cement pool, the deeper end for larger children and the more shallow end for the wee ones. They had every device to amuse small folk, even to Shetland ponies. The large pavilion saw many a wonderful supper spread for the Sunday-school picnics; the supply of dishes always seemed adequate, and the kitchens were commodious for making the tea and coffee. The Office Specialty Co. always held their annual picnic there, and the gay dance in the evening was one of the events we all looked forward to.

The dances in those old days were so different to the modern ones! Everybody danced with everybody else. Now you seem to dance with the one partner all evening, unless somebody cuts in. That was before the day of street dancing too and before young folks danced to records and the radio.

The delightful house parties we used to have in many of the gracious homes of our dear old town. So many of the large houses have now been turned into apartment houses to ease the housing situation. The hospitable old-time big houses of our fathers' and mothers' young days are mostly memories. However the two lovely homes mentioned before are still themselves — they haven't been changed to apartments, the Elms and Elmwood. In the old days it was quite the usual thing to have a name for your place, and I can recall quite a few.

I had a delightful letter this week telling me of a garden in Sharon that I ought to see and I have high hopes of seeing it very soon. I'll surely tell my readers about it. Did you ever see so much yellow as we have these late days of summer? God must have loved golden flowers, he made so many! Presently we will have mauve and purple mixed with the yellow, and the two colors do blend so beautifully, purple and gold, our high school colors.

I cannot close without telling everyone who did not see the "Glad" show on Saturday that they missed one of the finest flower shows we have had in our town. It was magnificent and the other flowers, besides the gladioli, the wonderful frilly petunias, the pom-pom zinnias, were too. I'd have to give everybody first prize. It makes one feel rather sad, as Mr. Howard Hugo and I told each other, that this is the last show of the season. Well it was a most beautiful one, and I don't think we ever had a better in all our wonderful flower shows.

Two N.H.S. Students At C.N.E. Luncheon

On Warriors' Day, August 28, at the Canadian National Exhibition, "Canada's greatest instruments for keeping the peace," as Kate Aitken, women's director of the C.N.E., describes them, will be honored guests of the Women's Division. They are 600 young Canadians considered by their educators to be outstanding among the thousands attending high schools and colleges within a 500-mile radius of Toronto. Invited from Newmarket high school have been Audrey Rowland and Robert Stinson.

Selection of the 600 was done on the basis of their scholastic standing, leadership qualities and the ability to get on with others. "It is to these young people we must look to keep the peace of the future, so what more appropriate guests could be invited to our Warriors' Day luncheon," the women's director said.

This luncheon to honor outstanding young Canadians will be addressed by two of their own number. Fourteen-year-old Lorine Welch of Antastar, Ont., will discuss, "What Youth Has To Give Canada." Richard Stackhouse, 18-year-old Belleville youth, will reply with "What Canada Has To Give Us."

Both these young people are financing their studies with money earned from profitable hobbies—Miss Welch by growing and selling flowers and Stackhouse by playing the saxophone.

On and after September 1, 1948, the fee for a non-resident pupil will be $3.00 per month, payable in advance.

Brushes With The English Tongue

One of the qualities of the English language is its ability to withstand assaults upon it by radio comedians at one extreme, and little children at the other. At the moment, our son is carrying out a frontal attack on the tongue of Milton with results wondrous to hear, and not without their charm. The breakfast table was enlivened the other morning by the following: Geoff, pointing to an egg, "What those is, momma?" Momma, "Not 'What those is?' Geoff, but, 'What is that?'" Geoff, "That is an egg, momma."

While Geoff manages to get the sense of his conversation to his audience, his sister makes a game of "guess the missing word" of her efforts. For the past few days, she has been wandering around with a perplexed look upon her face and calling at intervals: "I loose, I loose." At first we thought she was losing her drawers and checked the pins to be sure, but now we think her "loose" is really "lose" but we have yet to discover what she has lost.

Not Just Language

The intricacies of the English language are not the only ones to puzzle a child. The actions of the adults about him are cause for speculation because they rarely respond to the direction attributed to them by a child's logic. We had an embarrassing instance of it when having lunch in a somewhat primitive surroundings. The restaurant did not have the usual indoor facilities which Geoff was accustomed to, so, perforce, we went out the door and down a beaten path to a small wooden building. After we had returned to the restaurant, Geoff insisted in a loud voice and with no uncertain meaning, every time someone went out the door that they too were in search of the same comfort. We finally gagged him with an ice cream sundae.

What with one thing and another, we have had ample opportunity to study our progeny at close range lately. The result is that we have a new admiration for their mother that she can put up with them day in and day out without ending in an asylum, although it must be touch and go sometimes. Their demands are endless, their invention infinite. Their noise is a blend of a boiler factory and an orphanage at the circus. After a day of it, we hid under the bed, a shivering wreck.

The kitchen pots and pans have a special attraction—probably the noise which they delight in making. Water draws them like ants to honey. At times they object to being washed in it but under their father's benevolent eye, they will play for hours in the sink, converting the pantry into a pool of a depth for high diving off the stove.

Lately, Geoff has been making his requests in the imperative. "I need the sugar," "I need a drink of water," "I need bread," and so on. We thought it rather charming. It indicated to our prejudiced mind an ability to be definite, to know what was wanted and do something about it. We thought it very advanced in one of Geoff's age. These considerations received a sad blow, however, when Geoff told us in all seriousness that he needed a new dad. We are now suggesting that he favor a different approach, with all comments strictly censored.

The Office Cat Reports

Ginger Finds 'Mouses Have Houses'

These are trying days, boss, what with the housing shortage. Junior claims that Newmarket is just about the dead centre, that is dead centre of the shortage. There is a fellow in town who was so hard up for a place to live that he went to the town clerk's office, got down on his knees and tried to rent the clock tower above the post office. The clerk referred him to the post office department, Ottawa.

I interviewed Euclid, the office rat, about the general problem of housing; he says he has been doing sociological research on the situation. We are going to have a stunted generation, he says, because people who have the urge to get married can't as they have no place to live. "Man may have to revert temporarily to the tent or cave," he prophesies.

"And what, Eukie, are the underlying causes of this relative ebb in human domiciles? Is our economy flagging?" I queried.

"The causes are quite obvious, old fruit," he said. "After the crash in '29—how well I remember '29—there wasn't much building. In the '30's, people were just as short of houses as now, only they couldn't afford to complain about it. Folks suffered in silence and lived with their mothers-in-law 'cause they didn't have the cash to rent even

... Observes housing shortage. Prophesies tents and caves ...

Around the North End of the County

Gormley Man Crowned 'Hay King'

Joseph Lanthier, Gormley, was crowned "Hay King of Canada" in what officials of the second Southwestern Ontario Grasslands Day said was the first contest in the dominion. With the title went $100 and a silver cup. There were 54 entries. Mr. Lanthier's entry, which was a mixture of alfalfa, red clover, timothy and orchard, scored 95 points of a possible 100.

Dial telephone service for Richmond Hill is an integral part of the expansion plans being carried out by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, according to S. R. VanDusen, manager for the area. Because of shortages of exchange equipment coupled with a growing demand for this type of equipment throughout the country, plans for converting the system here to dial are tentatively set for 1951.

A ceremony of blessing Richmond's Hill first separate school was held last Sunday afternoon. Mgr. Callaghan addressed the assembly following the dedication and many members of the clergy were in attendance from Toronto and other points. The new school is a modern brick structure with two classrooms, play room, teachers' room, kitchen facilities and other modern conveniences. Located at the rear of the church in a beautiful setting with ample playgrounds, the new school is modern in every respect. Construction was started late in April. The school will be open in September with 60 pupils and Sisters of Loretta will be in charge of instruction.

Stouffville's assessment, just being completed, shows an increase of 105 for a population of 1,546, the highest figure ever reached. Last year's population was 1,441. The trend has been slowly upward for Stouffville's population. In 1920 it was 1,140 and in 1930 it was 1,260. Present figures show that there are 211 spinsters and widows in town.

A Party Convention

In his life of Sir Clifford Sifton, J. W. Duffie has this to say of party conventions: "In theory, the holding of a party convention returns the control of the party to policy and leadership into the hands of the rank and file; in practice it often means an opportunity to get an apparent endorsement from the rank and file for leaders and policies that are ripe for retirement. This perversion is possible owing to the manner in which delegates from the polls are usually chosen not by a public gathering of electors, but by slimly attended meetings of the local party associations, which are usually made up of workers and members who are keenly interested in the party. A party convention, unless care is taken in the election of delegates, is apt to reflect not the opinions of the great mass of voters, but the wishes and purposes of the ultra-partisans—the 'hard-boiled' practitioners of the political game."

Editorials

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Debenture Road Repairs

Newmarket's sidewalks and roads are a disgrace. Each year they become worse. The roads and bridges committee simply hasn't the funds to keep up with the growing deterioration. Reeve Arthur D. Evans has proposed that the money for repairs and improvements be debentured. It is a sound proposal. Those who suggest alternatives must admit that regardless of their apparent advantages, they have been offered before but the roads and sidewalks have never benefitted.

To improve the existing roads alone, including Main St., would cost an estimated $100,000. Of that sum, $45,000 is required for Main St. alone where it is recommended that the roadbed be dug up and replaced with a concrete roadbed, overlaid with asphalt. Such a task would also include the drainage of blow-holes, etc., partial cause of the annual upheaval of the roadbed each spring.

Reeve Evans' debenture proposal was made some weeks ago. Since then it has been informally debated on several occasions. However, there has been nothing done. In the meantime the roads and sidewalks continue to wear, each day adding to the eventual cost that must be paid. Newmarket believes itself a progressive centre. One look at the roads and sidewalks would discourage forever that conviction in a stranger. Everyone complains about them, but nothing is done. Reeve Evans has made a constructive suggestion; let a decision be made on it.

An End Of Patience

Human patience has limit, particularly where the pocketbook is concerned. Two reports this week very clearly indicate this. One deals with beef, the other with vegetables. Packing houses are reported to be reducing prices to pre-embargo levels. The accumulative buyer resistance which has met new meat prices leaves them with no alternative. At the same time, the American buyers who rushed to Canada when the embargo was lifted have returned home with their money in their pocket while cattle intended for the United States continue to eat their heads off at the stockyards. Too much was asked for them.

On the Holland Marsh, growers are plowing under lettuce. Even though it sells at ten cents in Toronto stores, the grower is receiving less than two cents a head. They just don't like a $271 loss per acre on prevailing prices. They are also organizing for more orderly marketing, a procedure which will not be without effect on current marketing practices, intended as it is to increase the return to the grower without increasing the cost to the consumer.

The public, housewives or market gardeners, can be imposed upon only so far, and then they act. Any public group, if organized and capable of concerted action, has a bargaining position. The pity of it is that they wait until the last moment before acting, when a little foresight might have spared them later difficulties.

Whose Gratitude?

A boy lost his left foot in an accident over a month ago. Since then, his friends have come to his assistance with financial contributions which in their total have nearly reached $1,500. Not only friends, but strangers to the boy and to the town have added their bit. The boy benefits because this money will be set aside for him to assist in his education. We wonder if the boy knows how he has benefitted the donors?

There is a community spirit in sharing a common cause, particularly if the cause is one like this. The small contribution and the large contribution lose their differences of quantity in the total. What remains is the common motivation, the wish to assist, and in that there are no differences. This complex world makes us forgetful of many things better remembered. The campaign for a boy in distress remembers a joy in participation. For that it is the donors who should thank Allan Greenwood.

The Canadian National Exhibition opens tomorrow. Canada's largest fair is an eventful occasion but it also means that the summer's end is near.

It is to be hoped that the town council will assist the Horticultural Society in replacing the trees removed at Fairly Lake by the action of the digger.

Considering the associations attached to the site of the new housing project, the name Armilago Heights is most appropriate for it.

Another winter closing in and still no decision on the Newmarket arena. If Newmarket doesn't arrange for artificial ice, another centre will and garner the profits to be had from such an enterprise.

Echoes of York County Past

Whom Did Samuel Lount Marry?

During the past five weeks, we have printed in this space a history of Bogartown, written by Elmer Starr, and published through his kindness. It is the editor's hope to continue such articles here and welcomes all contributions on the history of York county, the men and women who settled here, their way of life and their accomplishments. York county has a rich heritage of history and it is the purpose of The Era and Express to publish as much of it as possible so that some record may be had.

It is also hoped that through these columns, letters of inquiry may be dealt with for much information of historical importance exists only in the memories of those who have shared in the events, or their children. Such an inquiry is the one that follows:

Following the Birmingham riots late in the 18th century a young man bearing the name Gabriel Lount emigrated from Bristol, Eng., to the newly instituted United States of America. He settled in the neighborhood of Catawissa near the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania.

in, where he married Philadelphia Hughes, a Quakeress, and there his children were born.

Apparently his British proclivities were still too strong to appreciate the conditions prevalent in the new republic and in 1811 with his family he removed to Upper Canada and settled on lot No. 84 on the east side of Yonge St. near the town of Aurora.

His family of Mary who married Benjamin Hawk, Samuel (the martyr) who married Elizabeth (?), Reziak about whom little can be found except she was a twin of Samuel; Susannah who married John Wells, George who married Hannan Tyson, Esther (or Jane) who married James Pearson and Gabriel who married (first) Martha Hughes and (second) Phebe Wiggins.

Can any reader of this paper supply the following: Who was Samuel Lount's wife? Gabriel Sr. died in 1823; where was he buried?

Any of this information that can be supplied will be gratefully appreciated. Please send it direct to Mrs. John Trowhella, post office box 553, Newmarket.

Some weeks ago, we wrote of the Selby burial ground and remarked on the grave of The Hon. Alexander Arbuthnot, wondering who he was. A letter from Gormley says that the Hon. Alexander Arbuthnot was a Scottish lord who sold his title for a suit of clothes, married his mother's maid and came to Canada. They settled on a farm near Queensville, bought by Arbuthnot's mother. The couple had four daughters and one son. At least three great grandchildren are still living in this district.

We are indebted to Mrs. Tate, Gormley, for this information.

25 And 50 Years Ago

Stuart Scott Corner Stone Laid

The ceremony of laying the corner stone at the Stuart Scott public school on Lorne Ave. by Sir William Mulock was witnessed by nearly 500 people 25 years ago Tuesday, J. R. Y. Broughton, chairman of the public school board, presided and introduced Rev. A. J. Mann of the Presbyterian church to offer prayer. The chairman then referred to the naming of the new building as the "Stuart Scott school" in honor of Dr. Scott who had served on the school board for 35 years and who had helped the late A. I. Hollingshead draw the plans for the Alexander Muir school. According to The Era of that date, these same plans were also used in the erection of the King George school and now for the third time are being used in the erection of the present building.

Hon. Mackenzie King, premier of Canada, who is paying an informal visit to his own riding, spoke after Sir William Mulock at the laying of the corner stone. He spoke about historic associations and then passed to things which we hold in common.

Mr. W. Lusted of Newmarket has disposed of his house and lot on Simcoe St. Mr. Jack Loper, Sharon, the purchaser, intends moving to town in the near future.

Miss Beth Lewis and a companion nurse from Forgas at the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, was home for the weekend.

Next Monday the owners of real estate in Newmarket will vote on a by-law which proposes

Miss Edith Robertson, daughter of Reeve Robertson, is to be congratulated on obtaining a first-class teacher's certificate before attaining the age required by the department to use it.

Prof. Firth, principal of Pickering College, and his wife were the guests of Mrs. B. Cody on Wednesday.

City Disgraced

(Toronto Star)

Toronto can hardly be happy over the recent expeditions of "Toronto youth gangs" to Ontario summer resorts where they create disorder not only by their gang vs. gang encounters, but by their attacks upon outsiders. They intimidate farmers, occupy barns as sleeping quarters, and in general make a nuisance of themselves. It is, in some measure at least, a reflection upon Toronto that in certain groups of her youth the propagandist tendency has not been channelled into courses beneficial to the public and to the youths themselves, but is instead permitted to manifest itself in harmful activities.

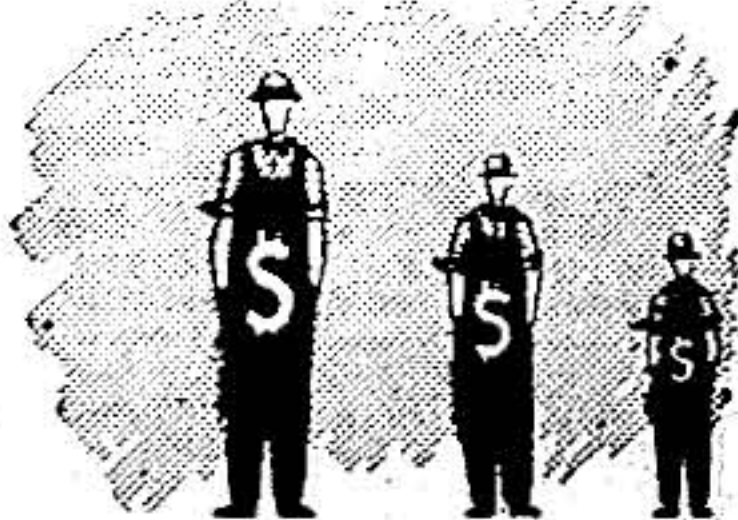

A Bit Of Fun

Pretending to take cover, the king jokingly cautioned Queen Elizabeth to "be careful with that gun," when she fired a pistol recently to start a Windsor to London marathon.

Men drivers couldn't shoe a cow blocking a narrow Oregon road. A wise woman motorist knew why. She milked the suffering animal, after which the grateful cow permitted traffic to resume.

FARM BULLETIN

FARM EARNINGS UP or DOWN?

For years it has been apparent to trained observers that many Canadian farmers were losing out in both quantity and quality of their crops through unwise use and abuse of the soil. Today, because of the world shortage of food, the need for conservation of farm resources should be obvious to every one.

One problem is that of occupied farms with decreasing production due to impoverished top soil; another is abandoned farms. Good soils now under forest cover might be better utilized as farms. There is the problem of a proper land use policy conforming to soil type and fertility and climate; and that of control and correction of land flooding, erosion, etc.

Conservation is so great a problem that only Federal and Provincial action, co-ordinated with the best efforts of organized farm groups over a period of years, will solve it, experts say. But conservation must come.

Planned Saving, like planned farming, makes sense. Regular deposits, at interest, steadily grow. We invite you to open an account at our nearest branch, and to talk over your problems with our capable, friendly manager.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Edith, 10½, had been shifted from one school to another so often that she required the advantages of individual attention as found in an opportunity class. Edith's father is a road construction engineer and his contracts require frequent changes of address. Edith and her mother accompany him and have established seven temporary homes during the past three years.

The many and varied experiences Edith has had have given her first-hand knowledge of things and places far surpassing information the average child acquires at school. Nevertheless, her maturity in this respect makes her a misfit with children of her own age group. Although she speaks French and Spanish as fluently as English, she doesn't know the basic principles of any language and would fail completely the third grade examination in grammar and written composition.

In arithmetic, Edith is even further behind. All she needs is some individual attention to concentrate on the simple first rudiments that she has missed thus far. Edith fits into the program of the opportunity class. Her teacher finds her an unusually interesting companion, adult in views regarding things in general. Her stories simply fascinate the other children in the class. They appreciate her much more than the average child and accept her as another teacher.

Previous to entrance into an opportunity class, Edith's school life had been a total failure. She had tried to make friends with the other children every time she changed school; but they didn't understand adult characteristics in a child. Soon she was branded as a 'smarty.' Edith's formal education had really suffered because of her unhappy isolated position in the regular class room.

Hope Tops Lake Loop, Fourth Berth Open

Hope drew first blood in the semi-finals of the Lake Simcoe softball league with a 6-1 victory over Keswick. The game was played at Sharon Wednesday evening. Don Glover got the nod as the winning pitcher. The teams go at it again at Keswick Friday evening. Keswick must win to stay in the hunt. That fourth place jam in the Lake Simcoe League softball race is still undecided. Pine Orchard right now has it with 22 points. Zephyr can tie the Orchard with a win in that postponed fixture with Willow Beach. The Beavers say that they can tie the Orchard. Some to do over a game with Brownhill, 'tis said. That postponed game incidentally was up for decision Monday but they only played three innings. The Beach led 6-5 over the Blues when it was shut down. So the teams are to go at it again Wednesday night. That's the information to hand. That game, of course, will have a big bearing on the fourth place.

Hope played a prank on Mount Albert last Friday in their postponed "to do." They eased out a 3-2 win over the Mount, due chiefly to Cliff Ward's double with Lonnie Ganton and Russell Pegg on the sacks. Outfielder Kelly Case was the long ball hitter for the Mount with a triple and scored one of their two runs. That win also eased Mount Albert in second place. Hope promptly stepping into their shoes. Keswick is third. Hope and Keswick start their best two-of-three semi-finals Wednesday at Sharon, the second game Friday at Keswick. Like we said, fourth spot is undecided. Mount Albert has to wait before they can swing into action.

Pine Orchard, battling mightily to retain their hold on fourth, stepped into Mount Albert fighting mad last Thursday and came away smiling with a 14-5 win. Ted Tidman getting the call for the winning effort, and "Red" Mitchell being hoisted with his third loss of the campaign. Keswick ran into trouble in their game with Willow Beach. The Beavers with Cec McNeill went great guns to ease out a 4-3 win. Keswick was able to put only seven men on the base paths.

Keswick evened up their week's work with a 10-2 win over Vandonr. The Lake Simcoe boys had little difficulty recording their victory. Harold Smith worked for the winners, Lloyd Preston for the losers.

Net Enthusiasts Deciding Singles

Play for the singles championship of the Newmarket Tennis club, both in the ladies' and men's division, got underway last week. In the first round, Chuck "Jeweller" Yates a 6-3, 6-4 victory over club president Jack Peppiatt, 6-2; 6-2. Keith Davis registered a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Chas. Lee, in a hard driving contest that required a little over two hours to complete. Other first round scores gave Bob "Jeweller" Yates a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Mike McCaffrey, Jerry Hugo over Morley Hunter, 6-0, 1-6, 6-4.

In the second round, now being contested for, Joe Dales eliminated Jerry Hugo 7-5, 8-1. In the first round of the ladies' section, Joyce Bothwell defeated M. Dales in straight sets, 6-4, 7-5. Joan Peppiatt defeated Mrs. Edna Boag 6-0, 6-2.

Second round / found Joan Peppiatt eliminating Joyce Bothwell. Mrs. Dorothy Bowman won from Alma McComb 6-0, 6-0. Mrs. Helen Coveney made the semi-finals in a straight set, 6-1, 6-1, triumph over Frances Luesby.

In the first of the semi-finals Mrs. Dorothy Bowman won over Mrs. Helen Coveney, 6-2, 6-3. Mrs. Margaret Davis will meet Joan Peppiatt in the other semi-final round.

Seven - Run Rally Gives Aurora First Game

Aurora defeated Sutton last night 7-1 to take the series.

With superb pitching by Ron Simmons and a second inning seven-run uprising, Aurora juniors took the first of their two-game OBA junior series with Sutton juniors 9-2. Simmons allowed only four scattered hits and whiffed 13. John Learyod was on the mound for Sutton and he hurled a fair game, yielding only six hits, but his support faltered in the clutch. Sutton was minus their regular battery of Paul Farrell and Jim West, but Bruce McMillan filled in capably behind the plate for Farrell.

Sutton secured their two runs in the first stanza as Learyod took first on Blight's error, stole second and scored on Stroud's single. Taylor forced Stroud, reached second on Lake's infield out and scored on Lake's single.

After a scoreless first inning Aurora went for seven, Eric Smith doubling to score three. Mac Clement provided the fireworks of the game with a single in the second and a long homer in the fourth. Stundun with a triple and single, and Don Brown with a single was the other Aurora batsman to hit safely.

There's no business like this play-off business. It has the cantown in a dither. It's bound to get as hot as the weather or even hotter. The Vels are in now. They'll move into three-of-five, knock - em - down and drag-em-out series for the North Yonge little with Moe Walsh's Aurora side. Some fun is in store for the fans before a winner is checked. At the moment the information we have, while not official, is that the series will open in Aurora Thursday, with a return engagement billed for four balls Saturday afternoon at the Stuart Scott school diamond.

Starting time. How right scribe Ab. Hulse was when he noted last week the late starting time in the North Yonge League would lead to difficulties. Last Friday evening proved his point without a doubt. The fans of the district are deserving of nine innings of ball—starting at 8:30 and not a moment later. The amazing part about it is that the late starting has been going on for years and years and only leads to squabbles, both on the diamond and in the committee room. Until such time that a team that is not Johnny-on-the-spot at starting time and is given the old heave ho it will likely go on.

Congrats ladies, Skipper Courtney and Coach VanZant on your Port Credit win. Can imagine you had a full day of it before ousting the Credits. Now it's Cobourg in the second round, in the lake shore town for the initial test, back here on Saturday afternoon. A two-of-three series. The third comes off at the local diamond too if required.

Loads of the fans will be sending their hopes along with the Lions Midgets this Saturday. They tangle then in the second game of the best two-of-three series with Weston at Gibson Park. A win by our laddies will put them into the second round. Joe Cribbar, who needs no introduction to the fans of Newmarket, was renewing friendships with several of his old pals. Joe was the manager of the Weston team. The Weston teen-age playground actively seems to be well organized. The Weston crew had plenty of coaches, a pitching coach, a fielding coach, a catching coach. It's their first year in organized O.B.A. ball. They reached the playdowns on a bye.

Homemakers' Exchange

With pickling time upon us, the late summer has become a hectic period of intense activity, despite the heat. There are several reasons for failures in pickle making, but all can be avoided. Poor color results from too much spice or over-cooking. Whole spices give better color. Too strong a salt, sugar or vinegar solution will cause shriveling. Other causes may be cooking too quickly in sugar or vinegar solution.

Soft pickles result if the brine is too weak to prevent the action of spoilage bacteria, or if any of the pickles are not covered with brine and exposed to the air. Do not stir pickles while curing.

MAXINE MCKENZIE

WEDS D. G. NISBET

Aurora United church, lovely with tall standards and white baskets filled with pink and white gladioli and white larkspur, was the setting August 7 for the marriage of Norma Maxine McKenzie, youngest daughter of Mr. H. M. McKenzie and the late Mrs. McKenzie, to Douglas Gordon Nisbet, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin S. Nisbet, Stonerock, Aurora.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a charming gown of white silk tulle made with scalloped tiered skirt with bustle and slight train. Her finger-tip veil was caught with a wreath of lily of the valley and she carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and swansonia. She wore the groom's gift, a triple strand of pearls. The bridesmaids, Miss Pauline McKenzie, sister of the bride, and Miss Beverly Nisbet, sister of the groom, were gowned alike in orchid pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline, the skirts made in butterfly bustle effect with slight train. They carried bouquets of gardenias, larkspur and gladioli petals with matching wreaths of flowers in their hair. Keith Nisbet was his brother's best man and the ushers were William Thompson, Anson Gilbert and Craig McKenzie.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's father where Miss Margaret McKenzie received with the groom's mother, Mrs. Colin Nisbet. Miss McKenzie was wearing powder blue with picture hat to match and fuschia accessories and corsage of gardenias and gladioli petals. Mrs. Nisbet was wearing a grey figured mesh dress with corsage of pink roses and black mohair picture hat. For the honeymoon in Muskoka the bride chose a rose beige suit with matching hat and corsage of pink roses and cream gladioli petals. On their return the happy couple will make their home in Aurora.

Miss Isobel Cody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Cody, arrives home today after graduating from the School of Nursing at the Royal Victoria hospital, Montreal.

Won Much Praise, Nursery School Ends

Newmarket—A nursery school that has received not only the approval but a great deal of praise from local educational authorities as well as from Toronto paediatricians will no longer be available for the preschool children of Newmarket. Carried on by Mrs. Gordon Crutcher, the nursery school has achieved a place of real importance in the progressive education of many Newmarket youngsters. It is with much regret that parents learn of the coming departure of Mr. and Mrs. Crutcher and family to Thornhill where Mrs. Crutcher hopes to carry on a similar school.

A modified kindergarten program, changed to suit the younger children, has been adopted by Mrs. Crutcher who also took the advanced, older children in the beginning of their primary work. Passing the inspection of the provincial examiner of nursery schools, sent out by the department of public welfare, this nursery school has maintained a well balanced program.

The following is an example of a typical day at the school: 9 - 9.30 a.m., open with morning circle, flag raising, prayer and morning talk; 9.30 to 9.45 a.m., songs. These songs are always correlated with the earlier talk so that if a story identifying birds was used that day, new bird songs would be taught; 9.45 - 10.10 a.m., first occupational period, children play with blocks, sewing cards, pasting or paper cut-outs, etc.;

10.10 - 10.15 a.m., march to radio; 10.15 - 10.30 a.m., Kindergarten of the Air; 10.30 - 10.50 a.m., chocolate milk, toilet session; 10.50 - 11.20 a.m., second occupational period with the daily story usually being told at this time; 11.20 - 11.35 a.m., games; 11.35 - 11.45 a.m., wraps, home.

Mrs. Crutcher said that she was very pleased with the work of the children in her classes and was quite delighted with the results the older ones had achieved in their tests taken this year by the Misses Graham of the public schools.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

A SHOWER

There is the shower which falls like "gentle rain from heaven" on our parched gardens which drink it up thirstily and raise bright and refreshed faces to its Giver when the clouds have cleared away. There is also a cataclysmic shower, usually with hail, that batters down everything in its path and leaves dejected flowers and vegetables behind it.

But the shower I am particularly interested in at present did indeed drop gifts, like gentle rain, upon one girl and leave her with a bright, grateful face turned to those who showered her. The shower I speak of was given by Mrs. Earl Toole on Saturday, Aug. 14, for Audrey Hunt whose marriage to J. Teasdale of Newmarket takes place in September.

Seventy-two adults and 14 children filled Mrs. Toole's large drawing room to capacity and when, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. George Wood, the bride-to-be was escorted to her place under the arch from which hung a pink and white watering can and gay balloons, everyone felt in the mood to enjoy the pretty sight of the gift opening. Audrey was assisted in this pleasant task by Erla Toole and Joyce Van Loven and all three were soon adorned with gay ribbons as gift after gift was unwrapped.

Every Variety

These gifts were in every variety of beauty and use, and if Audrey is anything like me, she will name the gifts after the givers and adorn her table one day with Mrs. Blank and the next day with Mrs. Donor and so on. It's fun for one has all sorts of pleasant associations with each person, and one almost feels they are a guest at the table.

Your scribe presented the Dickens plate which goes to each of the girls who attended our Christmas parties through the years, on her marriage. These girls, whom we have known from their childhood, are all very dear to us and we are always pleased when we see them establishing a home for themselves. Knowing them, we know the homes will be happy ones.

When the last gift had been unwrapped, Audrey, who by the way, looked very sweet in an Alice Blue gown, thanked all those who had so beautifully remembered her and did this very gracefully.

Mrs. Earl Toole thanked all those who had helped make the shower such a success by their presence and gifts, and hoped Audrey would find much enjoyment in them.

A delicious reception was served by the hostess, after which everyone gathered around the long table where the gifts reposed in all their beauty.

A pretty scene was that on the verandah where all the brides of a few years ago and their little ones had gathered in the delightful fellowship of young married life.

JOAN HARRISON WEDS CITY MAN

On August 21 at Aurora United church, Joan Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harrison, was united in marriage to Mr. Kenneth Skirving Rutherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rutherford, Toronto. Rev. Roy Hicks officiated, assisted by Rev. Harvey Howie. Mr. Illyd Harris was organist, and Mr. Roland Muddle sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blush satin gown with tulle veil caught by a tiara of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of red roses and swansia. Mrs. William Armstrong, matron of honor, chose turquoise faile taffeta with picture hat and carried tulleman roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Warren and Miss Elaine Ough, wore dusty pink with picture hats and carried pink roses and cornflowers. Miss Ruth Hodgkinson and Miss Jennifer Mosley were flower girls. The best man was Mr. Jack Rutherford, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. Wm. Armstrong, Toronto, and Messrs. Phillip, Frank and David Harrison, Aurora.

The reception was held at the home of the bride, Spruce St. The bride's mother received in cinnamon brown with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and the groom's mother assisted in a plum dress with black accessories and a corsage of tulleman roses. For travelling to Muskoka the bride wore a navy dress with salmon pink shortie coat and navy accessories and a corsage of salmon pink roses. They will reside at 113 Jones Ave., Toronto.

And now, as we leave the scene of this shower, we wish Audrey and Jack every happiness that life can bestow.

I must add that 21 gifts were "among those present" although their givers could not be and the beautiful bouquets of many colored asters which helped lend the rooms a festive air, were the gift of Mrs. Dolson.

RUTH BACHE WED IN NEWMARKET

The marriage of Ruth Wynn, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Bache, Newmarket, to Ronald Wilbert Beckett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beckett, Newmarket, took place in the living-room of the Free Methodist parsonage August 14, under an arch of pink and white streamers and a large white bell which was banked with ferns. The house was trimmed with pink and white gladioli, asters and sweetpeas.

The organist was Mrs. Gerald Sedore, sister of the bride, and soloist was Miss Elsie Gibbons. Officiating ministers were Rev. G. H. Bache and Rev. A. F. Bail, uncle of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by Lorne Bache, her brother.

The bride wore a three-length white silk jersey gown and a shoulder-length veil caught with white roses, lily of the valley, and white accessories. She carried pink sweetheart roses, fern and baby's breath. Miss Ruth Moynes, Frankford, was bridesmaid, wearing a pink crepe dress and pink shoulder-length veil caught with pink roses. Mr. Kenneth Beckett, brother of the groom, was best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride. The groom's mother received in a figured mauve and white crepe gown and the bride's mother in a gown of figured blue and white crepe. For travelling, the bride wore a dark red gabardine suit with brown furs and black accessories. The honeymoon is being spent at Toronto and Parry Sound. The couple will reside in Newmarket.

Out-of-town visitors at the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Ball, Orillia, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Macklin, Warkworth, Miss Ruth Moynes, Frankford, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sedore, Frankford.

Aurora Golfers Third In Walker Cup Play

The Hiram Walker trophy, a handicap event, was held at the Highlands Golf and Country club, Aurora, last week. It was a four-man team event represented by four teams from Barrie, one from Orillia, one from Oakville, two teams from Lake Wilcox, one team from International Business Machines (Glen Mawr club), and five teams from Aurora.

Barrie took the event with a total of 264. Orillia took second place with a 269 total. Aurora earned third spot with a 277 total.

The low gross prize went to W. Dymont of Barrie with a new course record set for amateurs, 67 (33-34). The Barrie team was composed of J. Willis, C. Johnson, W. Dymont and Jed Church. The Orillia team finishing second was Bob Dilworth, Ralph Dilworth, Al Perryman and D. Edwards. Aurora's team was Herb Cain, W. Preston, Joe Dales and Bud Pettit.

HIT BY BALL

Newmarket — Thomas Kirby-

Night Halts Game With Vets In Lead

The Vets all but put Langstaff to sleep Friday night. In the third and deciding fixture in Aurora town park, the Vets were holding on to a 5-1 advantage, there was one out and one on in the first of the seventh. The Staffers were at bat. Two more outs were needed and the game and series would go to the Vets. But it was getting dark. Umpire Summers didn't have his lantern along so he ups and shuts 'er down. No game. A tough break for our men. The way "Joint" McComb was serving them up it looked like Langstaff had about had it.

Now a peek at the run production. Langstaff opened it in the third, Jim Read walking followed by successive singles by Roy Russell and "Hats" Curtis gave them their lone tally. The Vets got to meeting Ken Darling's pitches on the nose in the third. Tod Mosier—doing a bang-up job at first—doubled down the left field line. Harv Gibney was on when short stopper Herbie Rose bobbled his effort. "Joint" McComb tripled and his mates were home free, McComb scoring on Joe Tunney's bingle. The Vets lofted their margin in the fourth, Ken Tupling and Harv Gibney being put son was badly cut about the eye when struck by a ball at the game Saturday when Newmarket Lions played Weston.

in a scoring position by Langstaff errors and Normie Legge did the necessary with a base hit to score both.

"Joint" McComb silenced Langstaff with four hits for a star rating.

Langstaff Ties Series

At Newmarket It might be well to see how Langstaff tied the series. The Vets, of course, grabbed the first trial 5-0. The Yonge Streeters deadlocked it Thursday at S.S. diamond as they measured our contingent for a 6-3 loss. Fielding errors cost the Vets the game. They spent a large part of the evening bobbling balls in the field. They had five errors.

Harv Gibney and "Joint" McComb combined for the first of the Vets' tallies, both doubling in the initial frame. That tied Langstaff who put a run over in their first. Langstaff moulded together six hits and four errors to run their total to six. Doug Eves, holding down the short-stopping for the Vets, brought a ray of hope as he lammed out a circuit smash. Ken Tupling crossing ahead of him. That shoved the Vets within three runs of the visitors. That's where they stopped. The final score Langstaff 6, Vets 3.

Newmarket ladies dropped a tough one in their first test with Cobourg Pavilions in the Lake Shore town Wednesday evening after leading to the eighth with 5-4. Our lead vanished before a circuit smash by Cobourg third sacker Mary Moore with one pal on the base lines to give the home team a 6-5 lead. Our maids tried hard to stage a rally in the ninth, Phil McInnis opening with a hit with Mary Ellen McInnis being put on by a Cobourg error. Neither got beyond second as the following batters went down.

Newmarket made the third its big frame with four runs and added another in the sixth on Mary Osborne's home-run clout. Edith Dow on the Newmarket mound got along to the fourth before Cobourg managed a run. They added three in the sixth going on to win it with that eighth innings rally.

We think it will be a different story this Saturday at 2 p.m. when the second game goes at the S.S. school grounds. It's going to be tough to win two on Saturday, but our gals can do it. We'll see you there. Bring along your rootin' tootin' voice.

LADIES DEFEAT PORT CREDIT SATURDAY

By GEO. HASKETT JR.

Our ladies' softball nine are ready for the second round of P.W.S.U. fun. They returned from Port Credit with the first round salted away Saturday. Before eliminating the Port threat they needed both an afternoon and evening performance. The Ports made plenty of noise with a heavy batting attack in the afternoon sun to take a 17-8 verdict. They took it out on both pitchers, Betty VanZant and Edith Dow, finding time to lash out 13 hits. It was far from Newmarket's best performance. They had a basket full of errors. This surprising win by the Credits tied the series at a game each. The evening fixture was required—as is the P.W.S.U. custom—to declare a winner.

Our gals got back to their razor-sharp fielding in the evening. They cut loose with a barrage of hits to all corners, collecting 16 hits for 11 runs. Edith Dow cut down the Port Credit production to 11 hits and seven runs. Centre fielder Lois Manning was the power hitter with a four-hit performance. Mary Osborne and Edith Dow swung away to the tune of three hits apiece to give their centre-fielder a run for the batting crown. Edna McGrath was the only one to miss the hit parade down the batting run. She made up for it with two walks and a snappy fielding display around the keystone base. Mary Ellen McInnis brought a burst of applause from the fans. She sailed right over the foul line to record the final out.

At that, our gals had to stage an uphill fight. After losing the first game, Port Credit built up a 7-5 lead in the fourth of the second tilt. That didn't daunt the locals. In the eighth they took over the lead with a six-run spree. That put the game on ice. Port Credit went down in the ninth without a run due chiefly to Mona Dean's snappy toss to Edna McGrath at second to cut down a runner, and Mary Ellen's nice running catch.

'Butchers' Scramble Specialty 'Ramblers'

It's a fact, we know it, we've been neglecting those hot Specialty departmental softball disputes. We had a difficult time getting this stuff. It seems that Craddock's Ramblers were trying to keep it quiet but the truth is they were badly trounced by Bennitz's Woodbutchers last week who found the Ramblers' fast ball flinger "Farmer" Preston on an easy mark so they promptly walloped him for 17 runs.

Johnny VandenBergh, the Woodbutchers' heater, was as hot as the weather, shutting the Ramblers off with three runs. They are having a big draw for the Specialty championship right now. We'll let you know who's in and who's out when we get the dope.
